

A roasted turkey is the central focus, resting on a dark wooden platter. The turkey is golden-brown and surrounded by a bed of red berries. Several pinecones are scattered around the platter, and a sprig of rosemary is tucked near the turkey. The background is dark and textured, with more pinecones and berries visible. The overall mood is festive and rustic.

"My goal is to educate normal people around all aspects of running, focusing on balancing training without impacting busy lifestyles. Regardless of distance run, the most important thing is to build strong foundations. I need to warn you though, as there are some side effects to my approach. Not only will you perform better than you imagined, but your body will become unbreakable and the likelihood is you will look better naked."

Running should be seen as more than an A to Z process & destination. It's far more than that. The health benefits are significant. Not only the physical benefits, including stronger muscles, stronger cardiovascular system, but also with something often overlooked. Our mental health. Giving to yourself, to allow you to give to others. Having time to yourself, without pleasing others, without distractions, is one of the most liberating and powerful things you can do. Giving yourself the ability to breathe, to think & dream without the opinion of others, gives you freedom to put things into perspective.

We need to fuel our efforts & aspirations, so these pages will empower you to take control of your nutrition. Enjoy every bite and every mile run.

Brush the chicken all over with the remaining pomegranate mixture, and continue to roast until an instant-read thermometer inserted into a thigh without touching bone reaches 165 degrees, until golden and cooked through, about 50 minutes.

Transfer to a serving dish and brush with reduced pomegranate juice. Let stand 10 minutes.

Deglaze frying pan over medium heat with stock, scraping up brown bits with a wooden spoon. Cook until reduced by half. Add thyme and pomegranate seeds.

Serve with chicken and sprinkle with pomegranate seeds.

TIRAMISU

SERVES: 8

TOTAL TIME: 25 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

4 eggs
100g golden caster sugar
500g mascarpone cheese
100ml Irish cream liqueur (Baileys Irish liqueur)
300ml strong coffee, made with 2 tbsp coffee granules
and 300ml boiling water
175g sponge fingers
25g dark chocolate
2 tsp cocoa powder

INSTRUCTIONS

Separate the egg whites and yolks into two large bowls. Whisk the whites until stiff.

Add the sugar to the yolks and whisk again (no need to clean first) until thick and foamy – this will take about 5 mins.

Whisk the mascarpone and cream liqueur into the egg yolks until you can't see any streaks of cheese.

Carefully fold the whites into the mascarpone mixture with a large metal spoon to keep in as much air as possible.

Get your serving dish ready (20 x 15 cm). Pour the coffee into a shallow dish and dip in a few sponge fingers at a time, turning them for a few seconds until they are nicely soaked, but not soggy. Layer these into the dish until you have used half the biscuits, then evenly spread over half of the creamy mixture. Using the coarse side of the grater, grate over most of the chocolate, then repeat the sponge and cream layers.

Cover and chill for a few hours or overnight. This can now be kept in the fridge for up to two days.

To serve, dust with cocoa powder and grate over the remaining chocolate.
