We're here for young wheelchair users

£500

Could pay for one of our engineers to complete a repair and maintenance check on a young person's wheelchair, helping them to stay mobile and make the most of their equipment.

£1,000

Could go towards a specialist adapted buggy for a very young child, making a difference to the whole family - allowing them to enjoy the freedom of days out, walks on the beach or in the woods.

£2,100

Could cover the costs of a Mobility Clinic for five young people. Our therapists and engineers will assess their needs and handover the right piece of equipment, giving them greater independence.
